

Social organizations accepting donations

Many social service support organizations are in need of warm winter clothing for the individuals and families they serve. Each of these organizations have specific needs and ways they collect and distribute clothing, please see the below list for more information on how to get new and used clothing to these organizations in the most effective way.

ORGANIZATION NAME	DROP-OFF LOCATION	CURRENTLY ACCEPTING
Women's Resource Centre	690 McClean Street,	Toques, mittens, socks, travel sized toiletries, hygiene products, combs and hair ties
Season's House	146 Carson Avenue, Call to coordinate (250) 991-0222	New "in package" items or cash donation to purchase items
Salvation Army	Warrior Song Café at 374 McLean Street Call to coordinate (250) 992-7079	ONLY hats, scarves, gloves and warm socks
Amata Transition House	693 McLean Street	Call to coordinate
North Cariboo Metis Association	668 Doherty Drive, Call to coordinate (250) 992-9722	Call to coordinate
Quesnel Tillicum Society	319 North Fraser Drive, outside front door. Call to coordinate (250) 992-8347	Call to coordinate
Child Development Centre	488 McLean Street, Call to coordinate (250) 992-2481	Baby clothing donations for infants up to one year of age.